- I understand and agree that this application and supplemental materials, including my academic records, may be reviewed by the administration and faculty members of the Admissions Committee for the School of Law.
- I understand that in the event of misrepresentations or omissions made to the School of Law, the administration of the School of Law and Barry University reserve the right to take any steps they deem necessary to protect the integrity of their programs, which may include suspension, expulsion, or revocation of a degree.
- Effective February 4, 2002, Barry Law School received provisional approval from the American Bar Association (ABA). With provisional approval, graduates of Barry Law School are entitled to the same recognition as graduates of fully approved law schools, including the right to take the Bar Exam in Florida and almost all jurisdictions in the United States.
- Applicants are advised to contact the Board of Bar Examiners of each state in which they intend to practice law to ascertain whether anything in their background will interfere with, or preclude their admission to the practice of law in that jurisdiction. Graduation from law school does not guarantee the student's eligibility to sit for a bar examination or for admission to the practice of law.
- Once admitted to law school, you must notify Barry University School of Law (Registrar) in writing in the event of any arrests, legal proceedings, bankruptcies, or other updates to the administrative student file from the time of initial application.

By signing this application or transmitting it electronically, I hereby certify that I have read and understand this application. I further certify that the above information is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I agree to abide by all rules and regulations of Barry University.
