

Barry University School of Podiatric Medicine is scheduled for a reaccreditation for the Doctorate in Podiatric Medicine (DPM) by the Council on Podiatric Medical Education (CPME). The CPME site evaluators will be on campus from June 3 through June 6, 2024.

In accordance with the CPME's procedures, interested individuals or institutions are invited to submit third-party comments with respect to the compliance Barry University School of Podiatric Medicine, with the standards and requirements of the council.

Comments must relate specifically to the council's requirements as published in CPME 120, Standards and Requirements for Accrediting Colleges of Podiatric Medicine, which may be obtained on CPME.org/cpme120

Signed comments received by the council will be shared with the institution and members of the evaluation team prior to the visit. The institution is notified of third-party comments so it may have the opportunity to respond. The council will exercise its best efforts to keep confidential the identity of an individual or entity who submits a comment, unless the person or entity has specified in writing that it is permissible to reveal their identity. If confidentiality is appropriate, all correspondence with the institution will maintain this confidentiality. During its review of the college, the evaluation team considers third-party comments, if any, that relate to the accreditation standards.

Please submit third-party comments to:

Dr. Heather Stagliano, Executive Director
Council on Podiatric Medical Education
