

How to Opt Out of Barry Access

Powered by BibliU | A quick guide for students

What is Barry Access?

1. For each participating course, your digital materials are automatically provided through your Canvas course.
2. A separate fee is added to your student account for each participating course.
3. Materials appear in your Canvas course and BibliU bookshelf from the first day of class.

How to Opt Out: Step by Step

1 Log in and find the Opt Out banner

Log in through Canvas or bibliu.com. If courses are eligible, you'll see a banner at the top of your BibliU Library showing the opt-out deadline and an 'Opt Out' link.

2 Review your course materials

Clicking the banner takes you to the Opt Out page, listing the material(s) included and the exact opt-out deadline for that course.

3 Click Opt Out and confirm your reason

Click 'Opt Out', choose a reason from the dropdown (different format, found your own resources, don't need it, cost, or other), then click Continue.

4 Changed your mind? Opt back in

Once opted out, the page becomes an 'Opt In' screen with an 'Opted Out' tag on your material. Click 'Opt In' to reverse - but only before the deadline.

5 Confirm opting back in

Clicking 'Opt In' opens a confirmation: you'll regain paid access, and the decision is final once the deadline passes.

Quick FAQ

Q: Will I be charged if I do not use the materials?

A: Yes. If you do not opt out by the deadline, you are billed automatically - even if you never open the material.

Q: Can I opt back in after opting out?

A: Yes. Click 'Opt In' on the same page, available until the opt-out deadline.

Q: What if I miss the deadline?

A: Your decision is locked for the term. Refunds are generally not available after the deadline.

Q: What if I drop the course?

A: Dropping before the deadline typically means no charge. Drops after may still be billed - check with your campus store.

Check Your Deadline

Your opt-out deadline for each course is listed on the Opt Out page in BibliU. Check it as soon as possible. Missed deadlines cannot be refunded.
